MORE PICTURES

#14. The bare-foot boy is the Executive Secretary, James E. Monroe

#15. Harry (Pete) Goulding sings to his wife, Reba. Wonder if he sings to his seedling hibiscus too.

#16. L. to R. Mr. Charles Schmidt and Mr. Aldrich Peeples. The presidential service awards this year were given to Mr. Charles Schmidt and Mrs. Edna Wells. Mr. Peeples accepted the plaque for Mrs. Wells as she was unable to attend.

#17. Two more hippies. L. to R. Ed Bryan, "most mod male; Mary Tapp, loudest lady. Both of these characters are from the Ridge chapter.

#18. Some plaincloths hippies, John O'Toole and Margaret LaPorte. Margaret seems to be saying, "Aw, come on, John, you can dream up an outfit for the party."

LEE TRAINOR HONORED

Recently Lee Trainor, president of the AHS was presented with a Certificate of Distinguished Service from the Winter Haven Board of Realtors. The certificate reads, "To R. L. Trainor, in recognition for outstanding service to the Winter Haven Board of Realtors and devoted dedication to the welfare and progress of the City of Winter Haven."

The presentation was a complete surprise to Mr. Trainor. He had no idea it was coming.
